

Social protection in Mozambique's media

January 2024

International
Labour
Organization

▶ Extended social assistance for vulnerable people

31/01/2024 - At least one million vulnerable households will benefit from social assistance this year through different programs created by the Government. Read more \(page 6\)

▶ Drought: Eleven thousand families receive assistance

29/01/2024 - Around 11 thousand households affected by the drought in the South and Center of the country will receive assistance from the National Social Action Institute (INAS), starting in March, as part of the early response to this climate phenomenon. Read more

▶ Social security revenues increased 32.7% in 2022

24/01/2024 - Data from the 2022 report and accounts of the National Social Security Institute (INSS) indicate that social security revenue increased by 32.7% in 2022, to 21.8 billion meticaís (314.7 million euros), driven by workers' contributions. Read more

▶ For the second year in a row: 2022 INSS accounts without "sins"

17/01/2024 - INSS recently published its Report and Accounts for 2022, without an adverse opinion from the independent auditor. This happens for the second year in a row, in contrast with reports from previous years, which were severely criticized by external auditors regarding the management/application of the institution's funds. Read more \(page 37\)

▶ INSS had current expenses valued at 12 billion meticaís in 2022

15/01/2024 - INSS recently revealed that, during the economic year of 2022, it had current expenses valued at 12 billion meticaís. Read more

▶ INSS closer to users in Magude

08/01/2024- The Magude District in Maputo Province will soon have an INSS service point. Read more \(page 6\).

▶ INSS pensioners in Dondo encourage informal workers

05/01/2024 - A group of pensioners from the social security system living in the District of Dondo, Sofala province, encouraged informal workers in that region about the importance of being registered and channeling their contributions to the INSS as own account workers. Read more \(page 14\).

▶ Forty thousand children will receive basic social subsidy to combat malnutrition

04/01/2024 - Around 40 thousand children from zero to 2 years old living in a situation of vulnerability are expected to benefit from the basic social subsidy, as part of a program that has been implemented since last year and has already covered at least 12,742 minors. Read more

Click to access Mozambique's page at ILO's social protection platform.